DECREASE OF THE PUBLIC DEST .- The monthly tatement issued from the Treasury Department to show the state of the government's finances is very interesting as to the impression which it conveys of the actual amount which the debt of the country is reduced. The last the country is reduced. The last statement announced a reduction of $833,075, whereas, in fact, according to a prominent official of the Treasury, the bonded indebtedness of the government was decreased $19,847,200, being that much less September I than on August 1. This was done by the purchase of 4½ per cent bonds and, of course, resulted in a reduction of the cash in the Treasury. The decrease is always stated "less cash in the Treasury."

ST. PAUL'S PADDED CENSUS. The Department of Justice Will Take the Matter in Hand.

ney General the census schedules for twentythree districts in the city of St. Paul. This action was taken at the request of the Department of Justice, and it is expected that presentions of those charged with padding the returns will follow. The districts padding the returns will follow. The districts referred to are those where the large office buildings, business buildings, depots, &c., are located, and where the people employed were returned as lodgers. It is probable that similar prosecutions will not be brought against the Minneapolis enumerators, as their schedules were not delivered to the Census Office until after the scheme had been exposed. An opportunity was thus secured to correct the schedules.

The Views of Mr. Edmunds and Other Senators.

MURDER OF GEN. BARRUNDEA.

Senator Call's Resolution For Prompt Government Action,

ARKANSAS CONTEST IN THE HOUSE.

SENATE,

Congressional Record. Objection to that was made, but five hundred copies were ordered to be printed for im-mediate distribution. Mr. Rusk's statement was that barley is the only cereal of which there is not raised a sufficiency for home consumption. The denial is to the effect that the annual product of the United States is about 60,000,000 bushels, and that the duantity used last year for malting purposes was less than 45,000,000. Ten million bushels had been imported from Canada—the quantity being superior for malting purposes to that of the United States barley.

THE MUNDER OF GEN. BARRUNDIA. Mr. Call offered a resolution (which was referred to the committee on foreign relations) declaring that the murder of Gen. Barrundia on the steamer Acapulco by the authorities of Guatemala while under the protection of the flag of the United States was an insult to the people of the United States and demanded prompt action by the government of the United States for the redress of that injury and for se-curity against the recurrence of such cases.

THE TARIFF BILL was taken up—the sugar schedule being under

Mr. Edmunds addressed the Senate. He referred to an assertion in Mr. Vance's speech last evening that the farmer bore all the burden of custom duties, while he had no benefit from them. That Senator had named a variety of articles that were on the free list, but he had and turpentine that have given such a whole-some and odorous name to the people of that

Mr. Vance-They are put on the free list also Mr. Famued - I be a reduced.

Mr. Edmunds - Well, let us unite to put them where they belong. The fact is that the farmer of North Carolina is, in respect to every material interest, precisely in the condition of the farmer of Vermont, and if a tariff is bad for the farmer of North Carolina it is bad for the farmer of Vermont.

COMING TO THE QUESTION OF RECIPROCITY. Mr. Edmunds recalled the history and the practical operation (injurious to the United States) of the Canadian reciprocity treaty of 1854. He spoke of the reduction of the duty on coffee 3 cents a pounds in 1872, and stated, on the authority of the American minister to Brazil, that as soon as that reduction was known at Rio Janeiro the price of coffee there was put up 3 cents a pound. The same thing occurred, he said, two years afterward when coffee was put on the free list. Experience coffee was put on the free list. Experience had shown from that day to this that the American consumer had profited nothing whatever from the taking off of that duty.

WHAT WE HAD LOST But, on the other hand, the United States had lost nearly $150,000,000 which it would have received from the duty on Brazilian coffee alone. As a practical farmer and farmer's son, he thought that the farmers in the region where he lived understood that sort of business and were not extremely hungry that he, as one of their representatives, should go into anything of that kind now. If the duty of two cents a pound were now taken off sugar he did not be-lieve that the price of sugar would fall two cents a pound. It would be apt to turn out as coffee had turned out. He did not want to be led into putting sugar on the free list on what he be-

THE FALLACIOUS AND DELUSIVE IDEA that because sugar was now two cents a pound cheaper in London than in New York it would then be the same price in both places. But even if the wholesale price of sugar did fall by means of the removal of the duty, the price at the grocers would not fall. Somebody else than the consumer would make the money. As to reciprocity with Central and South America, he said that the demand of a country for commodities did not depend as much upon numbers as upon the state of its society, its wealth and its civilization. When he looked at any Central American or South American state any Central American or South American state he thought (speaking with reserve and con-servatism) that any one hundred average peo-ple in North America had, during the last year, consumed more of the products, merchandise, food and clothing that go to make up the com-fort and luxury and happiness of mankind than any one thousand average people in the Central or South American states.

or South American states.

Therefore the expectation of the United States being able to dispose of a large increase of its products there, was, in his opinion, one of the greatest illusions that brilliant men or sober statesmen had lately fallen into. He did sober statesmen had lately fallen into. He did not mean by that, however, that he was not willing and glad to try it or the plan of receiv-ing any of the products of those countries which the United States do not produce and giving for them products which those countries did not produce.

with omitting evidence from the record and with a refusal to take testimony for the contestant. To his mind the majority report was incontrovertible evidence that the majority members of that subcommittee had started out upon their investigation determined to find something to sustain their preconceived ideas as to what the condition was in the second district of Arkansas. The whole majority report was founded

Continuing his criticism of the report, he quoted as the "milk in the cocoanut" the following extract: "The necessity for the enactment of some laws which will prevent ballot box stealing and murder from conferring a prima facie title to a seat in Congress is evident from the result in this contest. Had such laws been in force as would have prevented the contestee from taking his seat with such a title no one would have attempted to confer such title by stealing the ballot box."

have been worked, yielding about four tons to the acre; 1,500 acres planted of the "early orange" are estimated to yield about seven tons to the acre. The extreme dry weather has reduced the yield, nor is the sugar quite as good as last year. However, it is perhaps in better condition at Medicine Lodge in better condition at Medicine Lodge than at any other place visited by the special agent with the exception of Fort Scott and Topeka, where it will average about as well as at Medicine Lodge. The factory at this place started work on the 18th ultimo, and with the exception of two nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights and one day, when it had to lay off, nights he would be discharged. Their nights and one day, when it had to lay off, owing to the farmers being unable to get cane to the factory, it had run continuously up to the date of the special agent's report, making altogether ten days' running, during which time it had run off the early cane grown on the 325 acres referred to, and which yielded 1,250 tons, making 68,000 pounds of sugar already inspected by the state inspector, while that in tanks and sugar wagons yet to throw out were estimated to make 100,000 pounds in all or about 80 pounds of first sugar per ton of cane. The syrup was in tanks in the hot room, and it was estimated that there would be 20 pounds to ton of cane of second sugars, altogether a total of 100 pounds per ton, which is about 30 pounds to the ton more than was obtained last year. The improvements in the working of the mill are very noticeable, especially in the matter of very noticeable, especially in the matter of minimizing the waste and saving time. There minimizing the waste and saving time. There is a better extraction of juice, the cane is cleansed better and cut finer, and the work has all the advantage of more experienced labor in all departments of the factory. Special Agent Cook reports the best of feeling between the Cook reports the best of feeling between the farmers, laborers and proprietors of the factory, and everything seems to be working smoothly. It was expected that the factory would start work again Wednesday, September 8, and as the cane will be received from more farms, no delay is anticipated from more farms, no delay is anticipated from want of cane, and the proprietors confidently expect to average two hundred tons of cane every twenty-four hours, making altogether 1,000,000 pounds of sugar this season at this factory, and this notwithstanding shortage of season and crop. The report concludes as follows: "In short, the prospect looks very encouraging at this place. Everything is being conducted with system and business management, and the proprietors of the sugar factory as well as others who are familiar with the workings here, feel more confident than ever workings here, feel more confident than ever of the financial success of the manufacture of sugar from sorghum cane and beets in this

A hurried board meeting was held during the afternoon to consider the Guy case, but as all the papers were not on hand action was deferred until tomorrow, when final action is looked for. As stated in THE STAR of yesterday it is pretty certain that the Commissioners will not remove Lieut Guy, but will give him a reprimand. Whether he will be reduced or not is a question. There is a vacant sergeancy on the police force and Maj. Heore is holding the place open at the request of the Commissioners, so that it may be that Lieut Guy will be reduced to that position.

MAKING SORGHUM SUGAR.

An Encouraging Report Received From an Agent of the Agricultural Department

The Secretary of Agriculture is in receipt of a report from Special Agent Cook of Kansas in which he gives a very encouraging account of the improvements made in the sorghum sugar factory at Medicine Lodge in that state, and of the good results already shown in handling this season's crop. About 2,300 acres of cane were contracted for at this place, of which 325 acres of "early amber" and "Tennessee" varieties have been worked, yielding about four tons to pelled to go out with them. Gen. Pryor asked the witness if be had a conversation with Con-his resignation from the Knights of Labor and his resignation from the Knights of Labor and asked him to mail it for him. The witness promised to do so and told Gibson he was glad to see him taking that step. He never advised any one to leave the Knights of Labor.

At the conclusion of Mr. Stevens' testimony Gen. Pryor announced that he had no more witnesses to call here, but had a number in Albany. The board decided to adjourn until Friday at 10 as when it will need in Albany.

MAY STOP A WEDDING. A Buffalo Business Man Has Been Allenating Affection.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Sept. 3. - A decided sensation was created in society and business circles today by the announcement that papers had been filed in the supreme court in a suit for $10,000 damages, brought by John F. McLaughlin against Edward C. Burkhardt for criminal intimacy with and alienating the affections of the plaintiff's wife. Myra McLaughlin.

The plaintiff was until recently a post office clerk and Buffalo manager of the Elmira Telegram, and the detendant is a member of the real estate firm of Burkhardt Brothers and is quite wealthy. The complaint charges that the defendant by force violated the plaintiff wife in October, 1887, and that by dint of threats and lavish promises succeeded in continuing the intimacy for a period of two years.

Mrs. McLaughlin has confessed and has made an affidavit to the effect as stated. What adds to the sensation is the fact that cards are out known and wealthy citizen.

CAN'T WAKE HER UP.

Peculiar Case of a Swedish Girl in Illinois.

HARVARD, ILL., Sept. 3.-On the farm of Andrew Peacock, four miles northwest of Capron, a young lady about twenty years of age resides with her brother. She came to this country from Sweden about four weeks ago, and shortly after her arrival her brother observed something peculiar in her actions. Up to her arrival in America she had been feeling well, but after staying a short time at her brother's home she imagined that she was the object of persons who were determined to do her personal injury. All efforts to banish these thoughts from her mind were of no avail. She then went to sleep and after she had slept the usual length of time her brother tried to avail the state of the state of the state of the state. CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—A dispatch from St. Louis.

The appearance of the disease at Yembo, however, renews the gravity of the situation. The quarrymen employed on the estate of Mr. Parnell struck against the employment of persons obnoxious to them as managers and overseers, the ground of objection being that the overseers were strangers and persons of a different creed from the quarrymen. It is un-derstood that Mr. Parnell will close the quar-ries should the dispute continue. The Dublin corporation obtains its supplies of paving stone from these quarries.

New York, Sept. 3 .- The Evening Sun today, as a result of its investigation, prints a long expose of the "abuses and mismanagement" in the Blackwell's Island penitentiary, the conduct of which, it states, is a disgrace to a civilized community. This statement, it should be understood, applies more particularly to the sanitary management of the institution. The general conduct of the prison is fairly good. What the sanitary state of affairs is, however, may be judged from the fact that no longer ago than last April the prison was swept by a scourage of scurvy which nothing short of almost criminal negligence could have brought on. At one time not less than between thirty and forty convicts were down with the disease, and this by no means represents the number and this by no means represents the number who were actually afflicted. There is a dread among the prison convicts of going to the prison hospital, which keeps many who are in need of medical treatment from applying for it. During the scurvy epidemic last spring it kept at least one man from revealing his illness and he suffered in silence, and finally faced death itself without telling anybody that he was a sick man. He was found one morning in his cell stone dead, and the disease which cause his death was scurvy. There are still some casesd of scurvy left, but they are mild and the disease in its original face. and the disease in its epidemic form has disappeared.

The Sun says that the hospital is crowded and the air of the room foul. In the men's ward the water closet is right out in the room in plain view of all the sick, not 10 feet away, in fact, from some of the beds, and with not even so much as a screen around it. Further than this the mattresses on the beds are foul with dirt and the sheets and pillow cases grimy with dirt and the sheets and pillow cases grimy and unwholesome. But it is in the hospital attendance that the abuse and neglect are worst. In this respect a state of affairs exist which is little short of criminal. The attendants are all convicts. There is not a single trained nurse or one who knows anything whatever about care ng for the sick, unless by chance there happens to be some criminal who has had a little experience that way. The worst feature of this is that it falls to the lot of one of these ignorant criminals to handle all drugs and measure out and deal out all the doses of medicine which the doctors prescribe.
